

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. This policy outlines how we collect, use, share and store individual data.

We collect and hold information which is reasonably necessary for us to carry out our role. The kinds of information we collect and hold includes (but is not limited to) personal information about users of our services.

Examples of personal information that we may collect includes:

- name, contact details date of birth and age
- gender, details about your physical or mental health, including disabilities
- information about your support requirements should you have them
- details of emergency contacts, guardians and nominees, including names, addresses and contact details
- details of feedback or complaints about services provided by us
- Government issued pension or disability cards
- Your GP's name, clinic and contact information (So we can contact them if we need to)
- If your treatment falls under a compensable scheme
- A basic Screening Questionnaire to determine any risks that might not be obvious
- An Informed consent form including
 - Cancellation policy
 - Clinical Physical Contact
 - Risks associated with treatment
 - Questions of a personal nature
 - Children and Minors
 - Practitioner Collaboration
 - Change in information
 - Right to withdraw consent at any time
- If you are under a compensable scheme, we will ask for your Case/Claim/Plan number and relevant dates.
- This information is accessible to Transcend Health Employees with a password protected account.
 - Our admin team has access to the information outlined above
 - Notes made by your treating clinician regarding your episode of care is accessible only by the Transcend Health Clinical Team.
- This information is collected with the singular purpose of providing you with exceptional care.
- None of this information is shared with anyone, unless we have your permission, or required by law
- Any paper documents are shredded immediately after they have been entered into our Client Management System (CRM) Cliniko
- Any identifiable information not shredded will be kept in a locked draw until it is able to be destroyed
- We are required to maintain your information and cannot delete it for at least 7 years under law

If you would like more information about where your information is stored, please contact us.